Queen Eugenia Reigns Over Homecoming '74

In keeping with their homecoming theme of Oktoberfest, the junior class gave Pleasant the look of an old-fashioned German beer festival.

Completing the scene was Queen Eugenia Parker, who was attended by her court of Debbie Hall, senior; Jill Jesse, junior; Kathy Dowler, sophomore; and Linda Huddle, freshman.

This year's court includes Linda Huddle escorted by Rob Kantzer, Debbie Hall by Randy Ransome, Eugenia Parker by Bob Ruth, Jill Jesse by Bob Hagerty, and Kathy Dowler by Marty Granger.

Saturday evening everyone seemed thoroughly entertained by the music of "Bearcat".

A good crowd was on hand making this years venture a complete success. All involved were very much enthused . . .

Once again good food and good friends had turned Pleasant's homecoming into a good time!

Musicians March to Different Drummer

After participating in the halftime entertainment of each football game this season, most members of the 1974 Spartan Marching Band hung up their overlays and marching shoes and formed the 1975 Spartan Concert Band, which performed at the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts and also at the Commencement exercises.

Several other musical adventures were open to Pleasant students including solo and ensemble contests and a trip to Cedar Point to name a few.

The pep band kept the excitment at basketball games alive, rousing the crowd with such tunes as "The Blues" and "Bud".

Audience Participates in the Play
YOU, THE JURY

A

A new experience is something everyone needs and this year the Drama Club had its turn to try something new. An audience participation play was their major production entitled YOU, THE JURY. It involved a first degree murder trial and at the end of the play the onlookers were asked to render their verdict as to the guilt of the defendant, Barbara Scott. Miss Scott was accused of killing her employer, Chester Arthur Brant. Several key witnesses were presented before the court presenting conflicting testimonies. Both performances received a not-guilty verdict much to the dismay of the prosecuting attorney.

Juniors Present Eventful Evening; "Midnight at the Oasis"

F

The 1975 Junior-Senior Prom held on May 10, proved to be very successful and enjoyable.

The evening started with dancing at the Danner Buick Showcase. The food and drinks were catered by the Brown House.

The All Americans provided the music for the dance. The guests then travelled down the road to the Southland Cinema where they saw the movie "Stepford Wives". After the movie they went to the Hy-Way Rollerina for skating, until the wee hours of the morning.

SPORTS

Win a Few, Lose a Few . . .

This past year the Pleasant football squad had to sample the bitter taste of defeat, which they had not experienced in several seasons. Their record really did not show their full potential, as they did defeat their county rival, Elgin. Key players were lost throughout the season due to injuries. Two seniors, Ron Wine and Louis Huesman, were honored on the North Central Conference team. Juniors Pat Landon and Jeff Picket were named honorable mention.

Harriers Stride to Successful Season

This year's Cross Country team, composed of nine seniors and two freshmen, relied on their past experiences to carry them to a successful season. Constantly improving their times all season paid off as they placed seventh in the N. C. C. meet and fifth in the sectionals. Five members of the squad, Scott and Kent Harvey, Kirby, Kramer, and Jesse, qualified for district competition.

Linksmen Have Par Season, Capture N.C.C. and Place in Districts

The golf team, which was composed of several experienced senior golfers, showed their golfing ability in 11 wins and 4 losses this season. The team came home from the Conference Tournament at Woody Ridge Golf Course as N. C. C. champs. The linksmen edged out Colonel Crawford by one stroke, 317 to 318. Mike Griffith was medalist in the tourney with an 18-hole round of 75. Traveling to Pine Hills for the sectionals the team qualified to play in the districts. In the district match the team faltered and finished only three strokes short of qualifying for the state.

Matmen Use Experience to Win

With many returning lettermen and experienced grapplers the '74-'75 wrestling team showed the Pleasant crowds what wrestling was all about. The team ended the season with a fine record of 29 wins and 7 loses. The tough matmen competed in three tournaments. They finished third at Marysville, took first at North Union, and sixth at Hamilton Township. The Spartans best dual meet performance was 58-10 trouncing of River Valley along with two other meets where they scored over fifty points. This year was the foundation year for upcoming seasons, for in the near future Pleasant should have a state competitive wrestling team.

Scott Harvey, Outstanding Wrestler

Pleasant's outstanding wrestler was senior Scott Harvey. Harvey in the 119 weight class posted a 21-5 record. Scott was the only matman to advance from the rough sectionals to the district. Tim Litteral and Jack Decker were chosen as alternates. Scott was also chosen as alternates.

Scott was credited with the most take downs. Mark Shriver accumulated the most back points and pins throughout the season. Frye achieved the most reversals. Freshman wrestler Blake McGory recorded the fastest pin of the year with a 23 second match against Jonathan Alder.

Hustle and Determination Carry

Considering that the squad had to rebuild almost completely from last year, the Spartans had a respectable year. Bob Dutcher and Ron Wine were the only two starters returning from last year. Height was also a factor since only two players, Dutcher and Rod Johnson were over six feet. Despite the large number of setbacks, the Spartans had this year compared with previous years they just kept pounding away and not getting discouraged. The team surprised many by their superb play in the latter part of the season, beating Elgin 69-67 in double overtime in their last regular season game, and by their efforts in tournament action, which saw them narrowly lose to Fredericktown in the district final game.

Eight Seniors Lead Spartans to an Even Season

With the aid of eight seniors, Ron Wine, Gary Sims, Wyatt Fetter, Fred Gurr, Graham Weir, Brad Clark, Mark Kirby, and Craig Yake the Spartans battled their way to the district finals. The seniors hard work and leadership was a great influence on the underclassmen of the team to give their best in ever game. Ron Wine, who led the seniors, was a great asset to the team's offensive and defensive endeavors. The seniors can be proud of their outstanding effort.

Reserves Shine On

The reserve basketball team led by Don Drake, Randy Bolinger, Roni Rech, Scott Dowell, and Dave Cheetham posted a winning record of 14-4 for the season. Team work, practice, and determination are just three of the many factors that led them to their winning season. Excellent coaching by Mr. Lichtenberger was an essential factor in guiding the team to a successful season. The experience they gained this year will help make a better varsity next year. The cheerleaders with their endless pep and spirit contributed to the winning season.

Three Land All-Conference Spots

Although the baseball team didn't have a winning season, many individuals shone as outstanding players. Ron Wine, Roni Rech, and Craig Yake were named to the All-Conference team, while Pat Landon received honorable mention. Bill Naseman and Craig Yake were named the team's most valuable players. Wine and Rech led the highest batting averages of the team with .352 and .342 respectively. Team captains Ron Wine, Ben Justice, and Doug Lawson led them to an even 12-12 record which the rest of the team hopes to improve upon next year.

After Much Hard Work, and Determination the Girls Finally Made Their Mark on the Sports Scene.

DETERMINATION . . .

Jane Weigler shows the concentration and determination that is required for a victory in all sports.

PRACTICE . . .

Kim Pierce and Suzy Bondor realize the value of practice in obtaining their goals.

AND FINALLY VICTORY . . .

It's rewards are felt by Barb Naseman.

This year marked the first year for real success for members of girls sports. Because of their strong determination, long hard hours of practice, they were able to dip into the riches of VICTORY.

The girls have become recognized not only by their home fans, but also have made the name of "Pleasant" known throughout the state.

Next year the teams will be even better with many returning lettermen, and new freshman adding more talent to the already talented squads.

Pleasant is already known for it's participation in boys sports, but thanks to this Year's group of girls, Pleasant is on it's way to become known in girls sports.

Well as Plan for the Future

Under the guidance of Mr. Doug Lichtenberger, the Future Teachers helped the elementary teachers with their gym classes. The experience gained will help the future teachers in their pursuit of their possible teaching careers. They sacrificed their study hall time and some stayed after school to help with the little people.

A. Aaron Exley appears to have a little trouble getting this young one to cooperate.

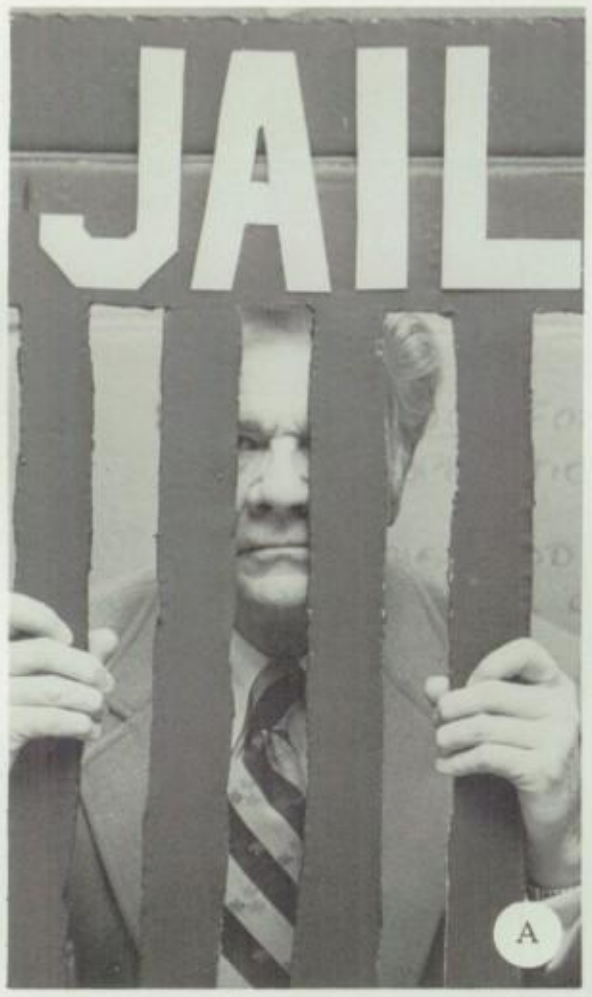
Girls in FHA Help Make Life a Little Easier for All

The girls in FHA under the guidance of Mrs. Busch and Mrs. Cackler, not only learned how to make life a little easier in their future homes but also those others who are in need. Through the use of bake sales and a jail day, they raised funds to help the Children's Hospital in Columbus. The President of FHA was Debbie Hall and she was assisted by the following officers: Vice-president, Debbie Thompson; Secretary, Lola Pryor; Treasurer, Phyllis Martin; Recorder, Pam Leeper; Historian, Connie Thomas; Recreation leader, Vickie Sharp; Parliamentarian, Janet Deskins.

The jail day was the highlight of the activities with the students paying 10 cents for each minute that they assigned a teacher. This was a subtle way for students to get back at their teachers. Some of the teachers were allotted some much time that their sentences had to be suspended.

Pleasant's chapter of FHA received their Award of Merit. Debbie Thompson and Debbie Hall were also awarded their State Homemaker award.



A. Mr. Smith awaits for his or for someone to post his bond as he scowls at the photographer. He is probably thinking of a way in which to repay his unloyal pupils (snap quiz . . . Mr. Smith?).

"The Future Is Ours . . ."

Reflecting on the last four years of high school, the seniors of 1975 can look back on a past filled full of meaningful people and experiences, and toward a future in which they will face a new sense of reality unlike that of their bygone days. By having learned to focus their ambitions and endeavors toward a definite goal, they will be better equipped to compete in the game that is played for keeps--the game of life.

UNDERCLASSMEN

"Midnight at the Oasis" Chosen as Prom Theme

"Midnight at the Oasis" was the prom theme chosen by the juniors. The formal dance was held at the Danner Buick company which was transformed into an oasis by the hard work of many juniors. Food was catered by the Brown House.

Following the dance students went to a movie and later went roller skating at the Hy- Way Roller Arena.

Debbie Conley and her date seem to be having a good time at the prom.

Pictured above is part of the prom decorations. Juniors worked hard to make palm trees, window decorations, and many others necessary items to make this prom a success.

Raising Money Continues to be Sophomore Goal

Sophomores busied themselves this year with many money raising projects. They ran the coat check, held cake raffles at the basketball games, and also sold jars of popcorn. They should be ready to host the Junior-Senior Prom next year.

Sophomores Battle Faculty

Each year the Sophomores play the faculty in volleyball and basketball as one of their money raising projects. This year, on April 23, the girls of the sophomore team were defeated by the women faculty in volleyball by a score of 2-1. The faculty men's team defeated the sophomore boys with a basketball score of 100-43.

With only three years to earn money, the freshman class started earning prom money with their car wash. They began as all other classes have in the past with officers trying to think of fund raising ideas and activities for the class. One of the activities was the Halloween party in October. In pep assemblies, they let their voices be heard in the battle cry winning once.

What's in it for you?

Plenty. Just about everything in your home came at least part way by truck — maybe all the way.

If you've got it, a truck brought it. And chances are just about as good that the truck's door was made here in Marion.

Judy,

To one of the most special people in my life: Keep your head high, your values high, your dreams high. May you someday find a guy who's together and your music for you. Best wishes good enough for you. Full of happiness. Best wishes and always be from a best friend,

Love,

Patty
